Billy Sunday yesterday at Foundry M. E. Church, before the Baltimore Conrence of the Methodist Church, flayed both clergymen and laymen in his fa-both clergymen and laymen in his fallations to use the remove sermon on "God's Arrow." He urged the ministers to take off their masks and fight for Christianity.

Hoarse from the strain of a steady flow of picturesque terms first hurled at the ministers and then at the audience, he concluded with a fiery prayer:

"Now Lord, bless this bunch. Bless Bishop Cranston; bless all these fellows who just patted us on the back and shook our hands and made us feel a lot better, though we had to hurry right on, because we've got to leave here at House Naval Affair on, because we've got to leave here at

"And God grant that all the 42-centimeters of hell can't make a breach in Heaven's ramparts; help these Methodists; they're good fighters, Lord, to light your battles."

Sunday declared Micaiah was a six-ylinder preacher, who wasn't ready to hrow up the sponge just because all the throw up the sponge just because all the star preachers on the circuit knocked him down. "A lot of preachers," he said, "are in the churches for the loaves and fishes. You let a preacher get in and tear the mask off the devil's face and in fifteen minutes the congregation will have nervous prostration.

DANIELS TURNS GUNS ON ADMIRAL FISKE

The Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, brought the hearings before the House Naval Affairs Committee to a close yesterday by administering a parting broadside of accusation against the foremost of his naval critics, Rear Admiral Bradlay A. Fiske.

miral Bradley A. Fiske.

The Secretary charged by implication that the opinions of his former chief aid and advisor on the shortcomings of the administration's naval policy were inspired not by genuine differences over the question of preparedness, but by disappointed ambition. Rear Admiral Fiske, he said, had asked for the appointment of commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet so many times that his importunities became embarrassing. Shortly after the appointment of Admiral Fletcher to that command, he asserted, Admiral Fiske's dissatisfaction with the trend of depart-mental affairs became manifest.
